

Shekoli:

For centuries the Oneida People have lived on these lands and lived as one with the natural beauty that surrounds us. Making visitors to our homelands feel welcome has always been important to the people of the Oneida Indian Nation. It was that way hundreds of years ago, and has never been more so than it is today.

It is our special pleasure and privilege to welcome you to The Lodge at Turning Stone. On behalf of the Men's Council and Clan Mothers of the Nation, and the Oneida people, we hope you enjoy your stay.

We believe your visit should be like spending time at the most welcoming and comfortable home you can imagine. Our staff is here to make sure your expectations are not just met, but exceeded. All of us hope you will find The Lodge at Turning Stone as relaxing and rejuvenating as we envisioned it to be.

The Lodge at Turning Stone is meant to be an exceptional place. As you relax in your room or read a book in the welcoming comfort of the Great Room, we hope you will see we have spent a great deal of time on the details. We hope our high level of service shines through whether you are ordering a cup of coffee or a gourmet meal so enjoyable it becomes the highlight of your stay.

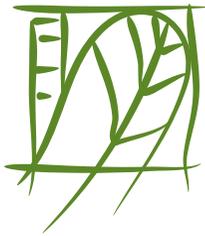

It is our hope you will find The Lodge at Turning Stone to be a welcoming place situated in beautiful surroundings. And, when you leave, we hope you take with you the feeling you have been touched by the spirit of this special place, The Lodge at Turning Stone in the center of our ancestral homeland.
